

Flower Availability

In all aspects of life, flowers are used to convey love, facilitate expression, provide meaning, and communicate emotions that words fail to capture. Selecting specific flowers that have importance and meaning to you helps create a more meaningful funeral. Our partner florist Flowers Vasette will happily work with you to design a unique special arrangement.

The choice of flower can hold specific significance, such as Australian natives to remember the times caravanning and camping or exotic orchids to reflect a memorable holiday. Don't feel limited to flowers – arrangements of other items including food or toys may be more special to you.

Availability and costs of floral tributes vary over the year. There are some times of year when certain flower requests can be difficult to meet. This table gives an overview of when flowers may be available for you.
